

Reverend Kenneth Kieffer

The Reverend Kenneth Kieffer was born and raised on the south shore of Long Island. Called to the ministry at an early age, Ken majored in religion at Florida Southern College in Lakeland, Florida. He later received his Masters of Divinity from Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta.

Ordained as an elder in the New York Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church in 1986, Ken has pastored churches in Greenwich, Norwalk and Stratford, Connecticut, and Glendale, Queens, New York. After serving for 8 years as the District Superintendent for the Connecticut District, Ken returned to the local church, where he is presently appointed as the pastor-in-charge of the United Methodist Church in Cheshire, CT.

Ken lives in Cheshire, CT with his wife, Karen, and their daughter, Olivea.